

Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;

The inherent worth and dignity of every person;

Our UU Principles

There are seven principles which Unitarian Universalist congregations affirm and promote:

Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;

A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;

The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society; at large;

The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
